

Subject: You're Invited!

I am excited to invite you to participate in something I truly believe is a good first step in changing the world of work.

You may have heard me reference Marcus Buckingham's strengths-based work in the past. He has just written his ninth book, called Nine Lies About Work: A Freethinking Leader's Guide to the Real World.
<https://www.amazon.com/Nine-Lies-about-Work-Freethinking/dp/1633696308/>

It is a manifesto about the real world of work, and how to shift the "lies" we've been told into actual change. All of his work is grounded in rich and rigorous research and is centered around making work a place where each of us can express the best of ourselves. I'm committed to this mission, and I'm asking you to do this with me because I believe you are too.

I will be facilitating a NINE LIES in NINE WEEKS: Learning Series + Book Club. We will kick off on _____ and wrap 9 weeks later on _____. Each week we'll read a chapter on our own and then come together to dissect each lie/truth and share real world examples of where we've encountered these in our own personal and professional experiences. There are companion videos that will help us dive deeper, and Marcus will also be answering questions on each chapter.

I think this will be a really fun and engaging experience for our team and I hope you say YES to joining!
